
Americans Corner Turkish Opium.

LONDON, July 23.—The Daily Express says: “The London opium importers have been advised that recent rains have greatly injured the Turkish crop. American brokers have bought 79,400 pounds, thus cornering the visible supply.”

The New York Times

Published: July 23, 1901

Copyright © The New York Times